Hello Members,

It's been a busy month at the club. We have made progress with assessing our insurance proceeds, have insurance money in the bank, the back stairway area is near completion and a decision for the contractor for the marina rebuild has been made by the Board. We should have a new marina by late spring. The sail locker will return soon, followed by the downstairs galley. All things post Sally are moving in a positive direction.

The All Hands meeting last week went well and membership is stable. All positions for the 2021 BOD will be filled after the elections on Dec 10th. There are two nominees for the next Commodore and nominees for three open positions on the Board. Thanks to all nominees and future flag officers. See list of nominees and election details in this edition of LL. Please plan on voting in person on Dec 10, or prior via absentee ballot. Only one vote per membership allowed.

There are many things to be thankful for at GLYC. We have had a stable year both financially and operationally despite COVID and Sally. I again want to thank the Board and the membership for their support and participation this past year. Although not an ideal year, I think we've made the best of the situation, enjoyed the club and are in good shape entering 2021. Please consider our staff in your gift giving this Christmas. They all do a great job for us.

Thanks and stay safe.

What food was Jimmy Carter's brother, Billy, allergic to? And no, it wasn't beer! This and other trivia questions were posed to the 15 persons making up three different teams on November's Trivia Night. All three teams did pretty well the first half, but the two-point lead the 'Nattis (named because they moved here from CincinNATTI) had at the half, helped them to a one-point win over the West End Gang and three points over BABS. Although December looks pretty busy, what with the Christmas and all, the plan is to do Trivia on the 17th. The questions start at 6:30, so bring out all your smarty-pants friends and join the fun. Only $10 per team, no limit on team size.

November's Bunco had 17 players compete for Bunco glory. Tom Turkey, Taters and Gravy, and Cranberry Sauce filled out the field needed for four player per table. there were lots of ties for such a small group. Most Losses were Helena Joyner and C.J. Bordelan and First Bunco went to Trudy Staak. Last Bunco was taken by Sam Mollett who also shared Half and Half with Tracy Sclease, Joan Ferry, Kathy McCaffrey, and Hayley Harigel. Hayley also split Most Buncos with Dean Hoffman and Kim Edens. Coincidentally, Kim and Dean were in Second Place! First Place winner was Sue Reilly. Plans are to do December's Bunco either the 3rd or the 10th. Watch the weekly email for the correct date, and join your fellow GLYCers for an evening of fun. Cost is only $10 per player. Registration starts at 6:00, and the action at 6:30.

Tai Chi is being suspended for December but will start again Tuesday, January 5. Take this opportunity to participate in a relaxing, energizing, easy to learn, group activity guaranteed to help you get rid of the stressors and anxieties from 2020 and prepare you for Mardi Gras 2021.
