BILL HARGREAVES FISHING RODEO.

The rodeo is only a few weeks away, and you can help us by using your social media platforms to let your friends and family know that the rodeo will be Father's Day weekend. You can get further rodeo information and purchase Rodeo Registrations, Fish fry Tickets, and Rodeo Sponsorships at <https://www.billhargreavesfishingrodeo.com>. Sunday, June 19th, is the fish fry and awards ceremony. We will need volunteers to set up, tear down, and help out during the event. Please reach out to anyone on the Rodeo Committee, Vice Commodore, or Rear Commodore to volunteer your assistance.

NAME TAGS.

Several club members have suggested offering name tags to make it easier for each of us to learn and call each other by name. Please look for an email with self-service purchase instructions. Instructions will also be posted on the club website <http://www.grandlagoonyachtclub.com/>

See you at our club!

Steve Payne, Commodore

From the Rear Commodore

Hello All,

I know that I say this often, but where does the time go? It's already mid-year and summer time is here! We all know what June means. The bad word season starts now. We had a recent training course on bad weather last week. We did pretty good but there were a few incidents. We lost a couple of pilings, we had some minor boat damage to a few of the boats in the marina and a minor damage to a sail on one of the club boats. It can not be stressed enough to double tie the boats that are in the water and secure the boats on the lifts.

We currently have a waiting list of 3 for the dry storage. By the time this is issued we will most likely be full on the west side of the marina with availability on the east side but it is getting limited. We will be posting a work day to happen before the Hargreaves Tournament and the July 4th events and will do our best to be proactive about the notices.

Speaking of the 4th of July events, don't forget to contribute to the fireworks fund to have another great show this year. Thanks for all of the help that is volunteered to make every event a success. And of course as always thanks to the wonderful staff that makes things great every day. Please call on me if I can be of assistance. 251-209-1992

Kind Regards,

Captain Scott A. Walley

Rear Commodore GLYC

From the Fleet Captain

Hey, everyone! Sailing Season has been great so far this season and it will only be getting better. Soooo, if you've wanted to get out on the water let me know and we'll get you sailing!

We had a great turnout for the Coast Guard Auxiliary boat inspections the first two Saturday's in May with 14 Club boats getting inspected (and passed!) Thanks to all the Club boat owners for keeping the inspectors so busy, they had a great time and passed along lots of good information to everyone!

Sail Camp this Summer will be held July 5 thru 8 for all kids 8 to 14 years old! Right now, this is for all kids that are either kids or grand-kids of Club members. No prior sailing experience is required. It's also FREE! The kids must bring their own life jackets (that fit properly!), some type of water shoes, and a lunch. The sign-up sheets for the kids are in the Club on the south wall by the door. Please write your email addresses very clearly, last year I sent several emails to somewhere in the ether, but not to the folks that needed it. So please make sure I get those right. Also, there is a sign-up list for folks that want to help out with the camp. Again, no experience is necessary, but we will put you to work! Thanks in advance to all our volunteers!

Sail Safe!

Kevin

ENTERTAINMENT STUFF

Repeating myself, thank you, Tracey and Debbie for y'all's help in promoting Entertainment. And, again, a huge difference it makes in the attendance at the Club.

We didn't have any entertainment on the 6th due to Mother's Day on the 8th.

Our Biloxi trip was another success thanks to everybody that partook. Except for the trash left behind in the back of the bus from a few individuals, we had a great time. Our Bartender and her barback, again, did an amazing job. Not a lot of snacks this time, but lots to drink, including cheesecake shots again. The 50/50 winners were Kelly with $100.00, and the other "half" $91.00 going to Georgia. Bingo winners were Kelly with $28.00, Mary Ann, with $28.00, and James Kennedy with $30.00. Thanks, too, to Jim our driver and Sandy our hostess. Our next trip will be in September. Details at a later date.

On the 13th, we had Paul and Company, with lots of karaoke. Vic Peavy and the Girls on the 20th with more karaoke. On the 27th a new guy, Norm Hastings, on the keyboard. Absolutely awesome. He plays dueling pianos with Paul at Seville. He can sing anything. He's definitely coming back. He enjoyed us, too.

We've got a really busy June. On the 3rd, we have Ronnie Levine back, Vic Peavy on the 10th, then, TAADAA, our annual Bill Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo from Thursday the 16th with the Skipper's meeting at 6, the weigh-ins on Friday and Saturday, then on Sunday, the 19th, the awards ceremony, 50/50, door prizes, apparel and bobber earrings for sale, then the awesome Fish Fry. Tara and her crew cook it up, then we have some awesome servers to serve it up. For our new members, it definitely is a MUST. Hope to see a big crowd. Then after resting up, we have Stephanie back on the 24th.

Just a heads up, Our "4th of July" party is on the 3rd with Vic Peavy and karaoke and "Fireworks by Anthony." There's a donation bucket at the bar to help pay for all the fireworks. Got a pretty good start with the donations on the 27th.

Don't forget Bunco on the 2nd, and Trivia on the 16th.

Yo Entertainment person,
Kathy Haskins

CRAPPY CRAFTERS CORNER

Another change of plans. On the 12th, we had plans to go to the Gulf Shores Zoo, but due to the upcoming annual Bill Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo, I asked our crew to work on some "Bobber" earrings to sell at the Rodeo. It was fun, til our fingers got tired, then we went to the Oar House for lunch. Again, another fun time. Wine, food, and lots of laughs.

Next month, we've kinda changed plans again. With the Rodeo, and the fact that we were the recipients of the Volunteer of the Year award last year, we want to help out again. We're gonna be folding and stuffing napkins for the fish fry, and playing games. When our fingers get tired, then off to lunch again.

Our Birthday girls this month are Debbie on the 9th, and Betty Zeleus on the 24th. Party on girls.

Happy Crafting y'all,
Kathy Haskins

The most comprehensive reference work on the definitions of words in the English language is the Oxford English Dictionary. According to that opus, which word has the most definitions or shades of meaning attached to it, take, go, run, or set? Your Lagoon Lines editor has placed the answer to May's question somewhere in this edition, but you really have to search for it. She has gotten wicked good at answer placements.

Seven teams and a record 42 players puzzled out the answer to this and nineteen other questions for the win. Bringing up seventh were the Texas Oilers who were a little young to get some of the references to '70's and '80's pop culture. Sixth were the Skippers who kept talking themselves out of the right answers. The 'Nattis finished only one point out of the money. The Ringers and new-comers Cul de Sac Crew tied for third. The West Side Gang beat them out by one point to take solo second. The BABS pulled out the win by one point on their strength on the final multi-point question. It was a real battle all the way.

Think you have what it takes to challenge these wise-guys? The next Trivia Night is set for June 16. Cost is only $10 per team, no limit on team size. Come early for Chef Tara's awesome appetizers and some thinking and drinking. The questions start at 6:30, but the fun starts when you get here.

May's Bunco crowd was a modest nineteen, so Mother Goose rounded out the field. Most Losses went to Shari Sparby. First Bunco was carded by Rudy Reilly, and Joan Ferry took the Last Bunco. Half and Half winners were Larry Staak, Countess Guiles, and Sue Reilly. Kim Edens and Rhonda McBride tied for Second Place, and Kathy Haskins took Most Wins. Most Buncos had three winners: Countess Guiles, Rudy Reilly, and Mike Haskins. Mark your calendars for the next Bunco Night on Thursday, June 2nd. Bring your friends to the Club for an evening of rock'em, sock'em Bunco. It's easy to learn and loads of fun to play. Cost is only $10 per player. Come early for dinner and libations. Registration starts at 6:00, and the action at 6:30.

GLYC's sessions are designed to gently flex your creaky joints and unkink your achy muscles. The group meets every Tuesday and Thursday morning at 8:30 for about 30 minutes for activities that also help improve balance and memory. There is no charge for these member-led activities, but the results are priceless. It's easy to get started, and no special equipment is needed. Just bring yourself and a positive attitude.
