Commodore's Corner

July flew by, and I would like to express my appreciation to Anthony and Perry for their involvement in the fireworks. That show will be the one to beat in years to come—also, a big thanks to the GLYC staff for efficiently handling such significant events.

A big shoutout to Kevin Marshall and his sailing crew for putting on another hugely successful sailing camp. Each child that attended was checked out to sail on their own by the end of camp. These highly successful activities happen because we have fellow members committed to planning and staffing them. Have you seen all the club sailboats on the beach? That same group of people would love to teach you how to sail or if you simply want a ride, they can handle that too.

We had a great crowd at our mid-year all-hands meeting, and thank you for coming. The board fielded questions about many things that we are considering. I am extremely thankful to have such a talented, hard-working group of flag officers and board members.

See you at our club!

Steve Payne, Commodore

The Vice's Voice

As we continue to experience heavy volume Sunday Brunch and Friday Dinner, order turnaround time can be longer than normal. Chef Tara, the kitchen staff, Kathy and the waitstaff are doing their best to minimize your wait. We appreciate your patience.

We appreciate the efforts of Stan Kocel, House Chairman, who saves GLYC significant dollars by taking on repair projects, instead of hiring expensive, outside contractors. A recent example is a new floor in the walk in cooler.

Got a suggestion for specials? Let Tara, Kathy R or myself know. We'll see if we can offer it. Don't forget take-out! If you can't join us in person, call 850-607-7569 and place your order for menu items, as well as specials. By the way, Publix accepts clean Styrofoam containers for recycle in one of the bins out front.

If we should happen to fall short of your expectations, please let me know. Also, any suggestions for improvement are always appreciated.

Friday's will also include the Member Drawing, but you GOTTA BE THERE to win!

Enjoy your club,
Bob Matson, Vice Commodore

From the Rear Commodore

Hello All,

I certainly hope that everyone is healthy and happy. It is so nice to see all of the new faces at the club. I have had the wonderful opportunity of meeting some of the new members as they have been walking down the dock.

Well, it's that time! The time of the year that our eyes will be on the tropics. We already have a good crew to help out in the preparation of the club and the marina if need be. We can always use more help during this time if we should have to prepare. Please let us know if anyone would like to be added to the crew list. Of course hopefully this will not be an issue that we have to deal with. Due to the heavy boat traffic, we suffered a few damages to the marina pilings during the Blue Angels Show weekend. The repairs are already in the works to be completed. We also are looking at methods to prevent things like this from happening in the future. When you are not onboard, it is always recommended that you tie your vessel up in the manner that it is centered in the slip. This will aid in the prevention of coming into contact with a piling. If anyone would care for assistance in achieving this, then we have many experienced members that would be happy to lend a hand.

The marina and wet slip situation is as follows. The west side of the marina is full. The east side has eight slips available as of today. Newer members, we do have transient slips that are available. Also any vacant slip is available for use. We ask you please let us know if you are to be leaving your boat in a slip and or your trailer in the parking lot. With the season upon us, please all members keep your boat and trailers mobile so that they can be moved out in the time of need.

As always, thank you to the wonderful staff that just keeps making things great. And please feel free to call on me for any assistance.

Kind Regards,

Captain Scott A. Walley
Rear Commodore GLYC

ENTERTAINMENT STUFF

July, again, was a pretty busy month. I was a little under the weather so I missed a lot, but from what I've been told, it was fun. The Fireworks on the 3rd were exceptional. Thanks, Anthony, for another job well done. And Vic and the Girls, from what I was told, were awesome. On the 8th, Norm played to a small crowd, but was great. Vic and the Girls were back on the 15th, with Ray Coley on the 22nd, and Vic and the Girls back on the 29th.

Oh, anybody missing Platinum Premium?? Well, with a lot of pleading and shifting things around, I got 'em back September 16th, then again October 7th and again November 18th.

August 5th, Boogie Inc performs from 7 til 10, Vic and the Girls back on the 12th, Stephanie on the 19th, and Norm on the 26th.

Don't forget Bunco on the 4th, and Trivia on the 18th.

How about a Biloxi trip? Got one booked on September 13th. So mark your calendars. We're going to the IP with Jim driving and Sandy as our Hostess. I'll have the paper work at the Club in the next week or so.

Yo Entertainment person,
Kathy Haskins

CRAPPY CRAFTERS CORNER

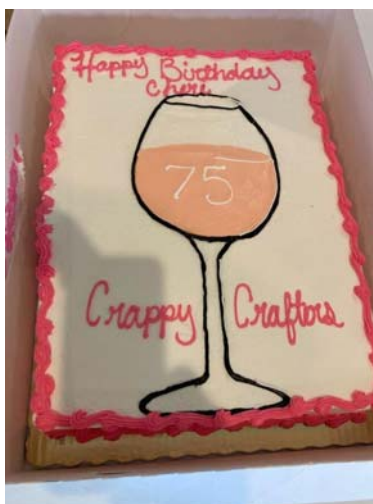

What a wild ride July turned out to be. Resting up from our Bill Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo was more than expected, but the ultimate highlight of the month was our Dirty Santa/Surprise Birthday Party for Cheri. We totally caught her off guard. Another two fun people to work with are Jeanne Williams and Marti Miller. Got our three brains together and pulled off what has to be the surprise of the Century. I invisioned the cake, and Marti ordered it. Perfection!!! As you can see from the pictures, our crazy "wine" idea happened. Everybody jumped in on the idea. I couldn't be there because I was a little under the weather but, Boy!, I was there in Spirit. And thanks, Debbie Buckley, for all the awesome pictures. She captured everything perfectly!!

Turning 75 is an awesome experience. Hope everybody gets to experience it. Well, a lot of our girls have already experienced it!!

Speaking of turning 75, Joan Ferry is our only Birthday Girl in August. Her's is on the 14th. Enjoy the month and party large.

Our next gathering is August 11th. We have plans to go Ax throwing. Sounds interesting. Then, of course, lunch somewhere.

Happy Crafting y'all,
Kathy Haskins

What was Michael Jackson's pet chimpanzee's name? The answer is somewhere in this Lagoon Lines, but you really have to be on your toes to find it. The editor likes to use visual clues, so if you find a bit of clip art that looks out of place, it is probably what you are looking for. Thirty-four players on five teams answered the featured question along with nineteen other fun, informative, and challenging ones. Despite being the only team that knew two of the answers, the IDK's brought up the caboose. They started out strong, but had a few flat tires in the second half. The Ringers struggled in the beginning, but came alive in the second half. Sadly, it wasn't enough to beat third place 'Nattis. The West Siders edged the Natti's by only one to come in second, but the Skippers held on to a half-time lead to win the night.

The format is simple. Nine questions are short answer like the featured question, nine are multiple choice, and two are multiple points. That allows every team to have a chance right up to the last question. Cost is only $10 per team, no limit on team size, so bring your friends and enjoy the next Trivia Night on Thursday, August 18. The fun starts when you get here, but the questions start at 6:30. Come early for Chef Tara's great appetizers and adult beverages to get those creative juices flowing.

Bunco Night is still not up to pre-pandemic numbers, but the ones who play have a lot of fun. Fifteen players came out for July's Bunco, so Yankee Doodle stepped in to complete the field. Most Losses went to Rudy Reilly. First Bunco was thrown by Sue Reilly and the Last Bunco by Kathy McCaffrey. Half and Half winners were Countess Guiles, Linda Vickers, and Sue Reilly. Sue also won Most Buncos, so she was a triple winner! Most Wins was shared by Mike Travis, Shari Sparby, and Kathy McCaffrey. Next month's Bunco will be August 4th. Registration starts at 6:00, and the action at 6:30. Cost is only $10 per player for this entertaining, easy to learn, fun to play game. As an added benefit to our new members, it is also a great way to meet your fellow GLYCers, a win-win situation!

Tai Chi

It is essential to occasionally relax and recharge so you can tackle the stressors in your life. Tai Chi does that and so much more. This ancient form of exercise helps with memory, balance, strength and agility. GLYC offers member-led sessions twice weekly every Tuesday and Thursday morning at 8:30. Sessions last about 30 minutes, and do not require any special equipment. It's never too late to get started with these movements designed for seniors with arthritis and other mobility issues. There is no charge for these easy to do exercises, but the results are priceless.
