Commodore's Corner

As I write this month's article, I have the Weather Channel on in the background and I am counting our blessings that this large storm is not coming our way. We have been watching what has become Ian for several days now, and I know many started making preliminary preparations well before the cone settled in on a path that has become favorable to our area. A big shout-out to Vice Commodore Bob Matson and Rear Commodore Scott Walley for preparing our storm plan for communication and execution. Also, to the many others who considered the club in their storm preparation plans.

See you at our club!

Steve Payne, Commodore

The Vice's Voice

Thanks in advance for your patience during our peak service periods.

Thanks to Steve Payne and Chris Henderson for their significant effort for security camera installation on the dock.

Got a suggestion for specials? Let Tara, Kathy R or myself know. We'll see if we can offer it.

Don't forget take-out! If you can't join us in person, call 850-607-7569 and place your order for menu items, as well as specials. By the way, Publix accepts clean Styrofoam containers for recycle in one of the bins out front.

If we should happen to fall short of your expectations, please let me know. Also, any suggestions for improvement are always appreciated.

Friday's will also include the Member Drawing, but you GOTTA BE THERE to win!

Enjoy your club,
Bob Matson, Vice Commodore

From the Rear Commodore

Hello All,

Well gosh Dangit! We almost made it through September without a threat of a storm. As I write this, it looks like we will escape it. We have had many members contact us about helping at the club to prep. Thank you very much! Hopefully this is just a training run. It is great to see so much support to help out.

I think it's time for a little work day. Let's get past this storm threat and plan one.

Currently as far as the marina, we are still full on the west side and have seven slips available on the east side. The dry storage has a waiting list of three. One opened up this past month so we were able to get one off of the list.

Ok, that's about it for me. Time to get back to watching this storm. Thanks to the wonderful staff. As always please let me know if I can be of any assistance.

Kind Regards,

Captain Scott A. Walley
Rear Commodore GLYC

From the Fleet Captain

Hey, everyone! Well, as I mentioned last month, we're still sailing! The water will stay warm for a couple more months, and on good days the sailing is fine! Boats will be available for sailing ALL winter, cause that's what we do around here. So feel free to check out a sailboat, or a kayak at your Yacht Club!

Not too early to mention that we'll be doing the Redneck Regatta again in January, 2023! We'll publish the exact day in future editions, but if you're looking to race, you need to pick up your boat from one of our friendly bar tenders, and get working on designing and decorating your boats. And GUYS: we need to do better this year! Last year all the contestants in the semi-finals and finals were ladies, and we got to do BETTER! So guys, start doing breathing exercises early so we're ready for this year's races! 😊

Congrats go out to our GLYC racing team for bringing home the hardware from the Wadewitz Fall Regatta in Fairhope this past weekend. Mark and his dad Jim, and Pete brought home trophies in the Sunfish and Laser division. Great job guys!

Thanks to Debbie, Laurence, Shaun, Pete and Tom for helping out with the September Adult Sail Camp. It was a great day, with a lot more wind than was forecast, and a good time was had by all. Thanks to all for supporting our program!

Last item, we're planning a Raft UP for November 12, 2022 for the Blue Angels Homecoming Air Show. Our plan is to raft up either in the Fort McCrae Cove, or in Grand Lagoon, and watch the show as a group. All boats will be welcome, power and sail, and we'll pick a spot where all the boats will have plenty of water and we can still move around and socialize before, during, and after the show. More details to follow as we get closer to the Show! Thanks.

Sail Safe!

Kevin

ENTERTAINMENT STUFF

Again, I wanna thank everybody that participated in our Biloxi bus trip on the 13th. Lots of goodies from Dean's rum punch, Marti's mimosas, Norm's chocolate Lemoncello, my Bloody mary's and Cheese cake shots, Marilyn's brownies, and all the other good stuff that was passed around. We certainly didn't go hungry or thirsty. Oh, yeah, Georgia and Mikey for their bartending, delivery the goodies. Also, thanks to Marti and Debbie for taking care of the 50/50 stuff and handling the money for Bingo. Thanks again to all y'all for your tremendous help. Couldn't have done it without y'all. Our 50/50 winner was Pam Blaire, and our Bingo winners were me, Steve Burand, and David Jolly on the way over. On our return trip the Bingo winners were David Jolly, Alisa Downs, and me. I know. Sounds rigged, huh. Not!!

We had Bunco on the 1st, no Entertainment on the 2nd due to Labor Day weekend, but we had Vic and the Girls on the 9th, Trivia on the 15th, and finally, back by lots of begging, Platinum Premier back on the 16th, Norm and his Piano on the 23rd. Oh yeah, rumor has it that my favorite Barbara Powell had a birthday on the 27th. Nanu, nanu my friend. Rounding out the month, on the 30th, Vic and the Girls were back. Awesome month!

Looking ahead to October. Busy, busy. Bunco, of course on the 6th, Platinum Premier back on the 7th, Vic and the Girls on the 14th, Trivia on the 20th, Stephanie on the 21st, then, TADA, our Halloween Party on the 28th with the Platinum Premier bringing up some ghostly music. The Costume Contest will be big, so wear your best, most original costume and win big prizes. Every year, the costumes get better and more original. So put your thinking caps on and use your wildest imagination.

I've got a couple of special things planned for November so stay tuned.

Y'all got any suggestions for me, please let me know. Til then.

Yo Entertainment person,
Kathy Haskins

CRAPPY CRAFTERS CORNER

Thanks to Jeanne 's guidance, our Gnome making was really a lot of fun at our September get together. We're discussing making more for our Christmas decorations for the Club. Our new found lunch place was The Point Restaurant on Innerarity. been there forever but this was the Crappy Crafters' first time as a group. Simply amazing and our waiter was awesome also. We are, definitely, going back. Oh, the food and drinks were good too.

Our Thursday game day hasn't taken off too good yet, but we're gonna keep trying. Just show up around 2ish and see what happens. Maybe when the weather starts getting cooler, it'll pick up. There's lots of different games to play.

Our October get together hasn't been inked in yet, so watch for details soon. I know it'll be fun whatever we plan to do, then, of course, lunch. We've had several suggestions for new lunch venues, but that, too, will be determined at a later date.

Our Birthday girls for October are Rose Cook on the 11th, Carolyn Pulford on the 13th, our famous rum punch maker Dean Hoffman on the 14th, Kathy McCaffrey on the 22nd, and Lee Vance on the 24th. Again, if I haven't mentioned your birthday, it's because I don't have it.

Happy Crafting y'all,
Kathy Haskins

UPCOMING EVENTS

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Friday, October 28

PLATINUM
PREMIER
7:00 p.m.

Dress up and come have some fun!

It is now routine for major movie stars to get million-dollar paydays for making a film, but that was not always the case. This month's question is who was the first actress to earn a million dollars for making a movie? Forty-two players on six teams answered that and nineteen other question in September's Trivia Night. Last place 'Nattis did well in the second half but couldn't overcome their poor showing in the first half. the Cul d'Sacs had a solid first half, but they faltered in the second to take fifth place. The BABS were last at the half but battled back in the second to tie the Skippers for Third. The Ringers were in the lead at the half but slipped in the last to take Second, two behind the West Siders who were two behind at the half, but they pulled into the lead on the strength of the final, multiple point question.

GLYC's next Trivia Night is scheduled for October 20. Bring your team or join one that's already there. Cost is only $10 per team, but the fun is worth much more. Put on your thinking and drinking caps and come out for an evening of fun factoids. The questions start at 6:30, but come earlier to enjoy Chef Tara's great appetizers.

Between Bunco being on the first day of the month combined with Labor Day week-end, twenty-two players was larger than expected turnout. In honor of the up-coming week-end, Manual Labor and Child Labor rounded out the field. Most Losses went to Linda Vickers. First Bunco was won by Larry Staak who went on to also win Most Buncos. Last Bunco was rolled by Mike Haskins. Half and Half went three ways, Red Rodgers, Tracy Sclease, and Dean Hoffman. Second Place was shared by Shari Sparby, Dave Jolly, Debbie Buckley, and Marti Miller. Most Wins was taken by Sue Reilly.

Next Bunco will be October 6. Come out then and bring your friends for an evening of fast, exciting , easy-to-learn Bunco fun. Cost is only $10 per player. Registration starts at 6:00, the action at 6:30. This is an excellent way for our newest members to meet some of your soon to be best friends.
