SEPTEMBER

Commodore's Corner

As we head into September, it is worth reminding everyone that 45% of the U.S. tropical storm landfall activity occurs in September. Historically, most activity peaks around the season's Sept. 10 midpoint. With that in mind, complete your storm preparations now and look for communications from the club should we have to prepare it for an oncoming storm.

Our sailing group continues to benefit from "Fair Winds and Following Seas," I suggest everyone interested in sailing reach out to the sailing team to take advantage of this thriving and wonderful component of our club.

Finally, as we approach the final quarter of the year, I'd like to express my appreciation for the contributions of my fellow board members and volunteers toward the club's success. Along with our outstanding staff, the club is healthy, vibrant, and a place folks enjoy.

See you at our club!

Steve Payne, Commodore

The Vice's Voice

As we continue to experience heavy volume at Sunday Brunch and Friday Dinner, order turnaround time can be longer than normal. Chef Tara, the kitchen staff, Kathy and the waitstaff are doing their best to minimize your wait. We appreciate your patience.

Got a suggestion for specials? Let Tara, Kathy R or myself know. We'll see if we can offer it. Don't forget take-out! If you can't join us in person, call 850-607-7569 and place your order for menu items, as well as specials. By the way, Publix accepts clean Styrofoam containers for recycle in one of the bins out front.

If we should happen to fall short of your expectations, please let me know. Also, any suggestions for improvement are always appreciated.

Friday's will also include the Member Drawing, but you GOTTA BE THERE to win!

Enjoy your club,
Bob Matson, Vice Commodore

From the Rear Commodore

Hello All,

Wow! September all ready. So far all is quiet in the tropics. The new members just keep coming. Adding more great people to our GLYC family. Unfortunately the travels have kept me on the go this summer and I have only been able to meet a few of you. The ones that I have met have been a joy to visit with.

We have had many reports lately about non members being on the property. Some of these have claimed to be a friend of a member. It is a club policy that all guest must be accompanied by a member. New signs have been ordered regarding this. The signs will be posted near the building and at the boat ramp.

The replacement pilings that were damaged in July are being installed this week. For members in the wet slips, please tie your lines low on the piling on the main dock and finger piers. Tie at the deck level. If your boat is tied properly with long lines then their will be plenty of scope in the lines to allow for any abnormal tide changes.

Well that's about it. Thank you to the staff for always making it great. And always please call on me if I can be of any assistance.

Kind Regards, Kind Regards,

Captain Scott A. Walley
Rear Commodore GLYC

From the Fleet Captain

Hey, everyone! Well, I have to say it's been hit or miss as far as good sailing days lately. But that doesn't discourage us, we'll still be out there on Wednesday afternoons well into the Fall - the air is cooler but the water is still nice and warm. The GLYC fleet of boats is in the best condition they've ever been in, so this will be a good time to get out there and use these excellent boats!

To help out with this we're going to hold another ADULT SAIL CAMP on September 17, 2022 at 10 AM. We'll have several instructors ready and waiting to help you get checked out on any boat you're interested in. All are welcome - from rank beginners (which are actually very fun!) to "ole salts" that just want to get checked out on our GLYC boats. Heck, if you just want to go sailing for the day, that's ok too! Just show up in clothes you don't mind getting wet, and we recommend you have some type of water shoe that you can wear while putting the boats in the water, and on the boat as you're sailing. We have life jackets available if you need them. So come on down and we'll get you out on the water!

Also, don't forget the Club has two nice kayaks available for member use. The keys to the locks, paddles and life jackets are all in the sail locker and you're welcome to use them any day of the week. The keys are in a plastic bin on the shelf in the sail locker clearly marked "Kayak", so help yourself! Thanks.

Sail Safe!

Kevin

ENTERTAINMENT STUFF

Another successful month at GLYC. From Bunco, Trivia, and Thi Chi (thanks to Countess), the amazing food being served up by our Chef Tara and her crew, leadership from Steve, Bob, and Kathy Renfrow, and awesome entertainment (oh, that's me).

Speaking of Entertainment, Patrick with Boogie, Inc. on the 5th came through again. On the 12th, we had Vic and the Girls with an Elvis theme, due to Bob Mickelson's 75th birthday. A lot of really good Karaoke. Stephanie brought her crowd on the 19th, and was awesome as usual. Norm and his piano on the 26th played to a good crowd. Thanks to Paul Therrell for introducing him to me.

September starts out on the 1st with Bunco. Starts at 6:30, but be there early to sign up. There won't be any Entertainment on the 2nd, due to the long holiday weekend. Vic and the Girls are back on the 9th. Don't forget our Biloxi Bus on the 13th. It's going to the IP. Only $22.00 with $20.00 in freeplay. Rumors are there'll be drinking, eating, and game playing on the bus. All this for the nominal fee of $22.00. The bus arrives at 8 am and leaves as soon as everybody is signed in. The earlier we get seated, the earlier we can leave. Georgia has the sign up sheet.

On the 16th, back by popular demand, we've got Platinum Premier, then Norm is back on the 23rd. Vic and the Girls will round out the month on the 30th.

Any suggestions for Entertainment, please let me know.

Yo Entertainment person,
Kathy Haskins

CRAPPY CRAFTERS CORNER

Our August gathering changed somewhat. Ax throwing was axed, so we went to lunch at the Oar House then back to the Club for a short meeting to rehash the rest of the year's gatherings, then played a few games. Some of us met again the following Thursday at 2ish for more games. That's the same time Mahjong plays. They play from 2 til 4, so we're gonna start playing games on Thursdays, too. We've got Scrabble, LRC (dice game), cards. Anybody that wants to join in on the fun (male or female), just show up. Any new games, bring 'em.

Our September gathering on the 8th is gonna be making Gnomes with Sue Reilly. Bring your styrofoam cones and Sue will furnish the rest. If you want any special bedazzling, bring it. Please respond to Cheri's email, so we'll know how many will be participating. After all that fun, we'll be going to lunch somewhere.

Our birthday Girls for September are Lydia on the 1st, Dee Marie on the 14th, Sally on the 20th, Julie on the 23rd, and Countess on the 27th. Enjoy your month. If I don't list your birthday, it's 'cause I don't have it.

Happy Crafting y'all,

Kathy Haskins

What was the number on the original Baskin-Robbins logo? Can't remember? Your newsletter editor has put the answer somewhere in this edition of the Lagoon Lines, and she is getting wickedly crafty at placement. She gets an almost perverse pleasure out of tricking us into asking "where's Waldo?".

The featured question along with nineteen other posers were presented to the twenty-six players making up four teams in the August competition. Although The BABS did much better on the second half than the first, the team still was four points down at the end. The Wringers also had a rough first half, but did really well on the final question. Sadly, the team finished one point behind the winners. Despite being down two at the half, the 'Natties sprinted in the second half to tie for the win with the West Siders.

The format for GLYC Trivia is nine short answer questions alternated with nine multiple choice. Question 10 and 20 are multiple point values, so every team usually has a chance to win right up to the last question. The next Trivia Night will be September 15. Bring your team or join one of the others. Cost is only $10 per team, no limit on team size. Registration is at 6:00, the questions at 6:30, but the fun starts when you get here. Come early and enjoy one of Chef Tara's delicious Thursday specials.

Attendance in August was much closer to pre-pandemic levels. Twenty-nine gamers came out to spend the evening trying their luck. In honor of Dog Days of Summer, Toto, Lassie, and Tramp rounded out the field. Most Losses was shared by Brenda Jackson and Rosie Travis. Ironically, Brenda also tied Bill Mayo for Most Buncos. Yes, you can be a loser and still be a winner! First Bunco was taken by Theresa Ferguson, and the Last Bunco by Debbie Buckley. Half and Half prizes went to five players: Shari Sparby, Rudy Reilly, Sue Reilly, Countess Guiles, and Jason Hale. Third was split between David Jolly and Steve Joyner, while solo Second was taken by Pete Newell. Most Wins went to new-comer, Keely Rhoden.

Come out Thursday, September 1, for another round of rock'em- sock'em Bunco. It is very easy to learn and loads of fun to play. Cost is only $10 each, all monies go back out to the winners. Registration starts at 6:00 and the action at 6:30. Come early so you can enjoy the food and beverages at the Club. Chef Tara always has a tasty Thursday special up her sleeve for your enjoyment.

Tai Chi

We are approaching the height of hurricane season and are also being bombarded with all stripes of political ads, both of which are adding to the stressors of everyday life. Tai chi is one quick, easy, and natural way to counteract much of that stress. GYLC has a tai chi group that meets twice a week, every Tuesday and

Thursday morning from 8:30 to 9:00. These member-led sessions are designed especially for seniors with arthritis and minor mobility issues, but even the fittest of us can get a lot out of this ancient Chinese activity. No special equipment is required, and there is no charge. Beginners are always welcome.

Member's Drawing Winners:

8/5 Bulford $125
8/12 Dan Clark $135
8/19 Dave Middleton $125
8/26 Rick & Stacey Hamilton $100

Every Friday a members number is drawn and the number drawn wins a club credit toward their account.

MUST BE PRESENT TO WIN.

The $$ Amount keeps going up when the member whose number is drawn is not present.

8/5 Larry Hammill $135
8/19 GLYC Waitstaff $135
