2022

Commodore's Corner

Now that we are enjoying the cooler fall weather, it becomes that time of year when the club leadership runs the process to elect the leadership team for the following year.

There will be an All-Hands Meeting on November 10th at 6:30 p.m., and the election will be on December 7th. The self-nomination whiteboard is posted, and if you are interested in running for a board position, please sign up. The bylaws indicate that the person running must be the person signing.

The dock camera project is complete, and I thank those who assisted with their volunteer labor. You can see the near-realtime video of one of the southern-facing cameras by pointing your favorite browser to <http://dock.grandlagoonyachtclub.com/>.

See you at our club!

Steve Payne, Commodore

The Vice's Voice

Enjoy the Fall on the deck under the new umbrellas Kathy found for us. We are evaluating awnings, sail cloth covering, et. al. Chef Tara has replaced the thin pork chops with porkier chops. Try 'em!

Upcoming GLYC Events you should not miss:

1. Marine Corps Birthday Celebration, hosted by Master Sergeant Roy Powell on November 9 (one day early).
2. All Hands Meeting November 10, 6:30 P.M. The slate for the 2023 Elections on December 7, 2022 will be closed at that time. Flag Officers will present the state of the club and answer your questions.
3. Mike & Kathy Haskins and Georgia are hosting a pitch-in Thanksgiving dinner. Sign up sheet and more details to follow.

Kathy Renfrow has been busy booking money-making special events for the club. She is mindful of busy times for members and books around those.

Got a suggestion for specials? Let Tara, Kathy R or myself know. We'll see if we can offer it. Don't forget take-out! If you can't join us in person, call 850-607-7569 and place your order for menu items, as well as specials. By the way, Publix accepts clean Styrofoam containers for recycle in one of the bins out front. If we should happen to fall short of your expectations, please let me know. Also, any suggestions for improvement are always appreciated.

Friday's will also include the Member Drawing, but you GOTTA BE THERE to win!!

Enjoy your club,
Bob Matson, Vice Commodore

From the Rear Commodore

Hello all. I hope everyone is healthy and enjoying the wonderful weather. The Halloween party was a big hit thanks to the entertainment committee and the staff. I'm really looking forward to this dueling piano thing.

Not much change to the marina and dry storage this month. We are having another fun work day on 11/5

Starting at 0800 ending at 1200. If anyone can make it anytime during those hours it will be much appreciated. You should have gotten an email about this.

We are suppose to be getting a few transient boats in later this month and December. Stop and say hi to them. They are mostly loopers that are coming from different clubs.

Thanks to the staff for keeping everything great.

Kind Regards,

Captain Scott A. Walley
Rear Commodore GLYC

From the Fleet Captain

Hey, everyone! Well, it has certainly cooled down lately, both the water and the air temps went down faster than we expected. But, that doesn't change anything, we're still sailing!

A couple of things coming up:

November 12: Blue Angle Final Show Raft UP! Everyone is invited, sailboats and powerboats. Plan on meeting out on the water about 10 AM so we can get a good spot. Exact location will be TBD, depending on the weather and number of participants. We know a couple of sailboats will be coming so we'll plan on a little deeper water, say 7-8 feet. I'll be monitoring Channel 16 and 68 VHF, so give me a call when you leave the dock and I'll vector you in. Also, my phone number is 251-776-3914, feel free to call. Please bring plenty of refreshments, food, and LARGE fenders (bumpers for the land lubbers)!!! If you haven't rafted up before, not to worry, we have several folks that will help get you tied up safely and securely. This is a fun event and gives you a neat perspective on the air show! And if you don't have a boat, but want to participate, give me a call and I'll set you up with a boat!

Adult Sail Camp: yes, we're planning another Adult Sail Camp for December 3, 2022! This one will be a little different in that we're only planning to use BIG Boats! By that I mean that the air temperature may be a little cool, but everyone will be on a big enough cruising boat that they will stay dry. This will be a good opportunity to see how the big boats handle and doesn't require as much athleticism moving around the boats. I'll put up a sign up sheet in the bar area for folks to sign up so we know how many boats to get ready. So come on and join us!

Congrats go out to our GLYC Racing Team for the Lost Coast Regatta: Mark Heinhold and crew took 2nd place in their division, and Tom Wagner and crew took 3rd place in their division. Great job guys!!! BTW, the trophies are very unique and are on display in the bar under the window by the sign-up bulletin board. Check 'em out!

Last reminder, don't forget about the Redneck Regatta in January, pick up your class legal boats from your friendly bar tenders, only $10!

Sail Safe!
Kevin

ENTERTAINMENT STUFF

Had a great crowd for Bunco on the 6th, again, thanks to Countess, then on the 7th, Platinum Premier rocked the house. Vic and the Girls were there on the 14th to keep the Karaoke fans happy. On the 20th, while Mahjong was going on, instead of playing games, us Crappy Crafters made Christmas Gnomes for our Kids Christmas Party on the 11th of December. A lot of imagination from a group of fun girls. Stephanie on the 21st brought her Entourage and a whole lot of members. She's always a crowd please.

Our Commodore, Steve, had an amazing Luau on the 22nd with lots and lots of family and friends. We surprised him with a guest appearance from our Hawaiian friend, Rhoda. I hope he enjoyed her as much as she enjoyed performing for him. Happy Big 60, Steve. Vicki did amazing job along with Kathy Renfrow, of course.

On the 23rd, a lot of us got together and decorated the Club for our Halloween Party on the 28th. It looked awesome. Our Halloween Party with Platinum Premier was awesome.

It was a packed house. 90% of our members to dressed for the occasion. Those that weren't were observers. Our Crew was amazing as usual. Pat won 1st place for her costume. The majority stayed late and partied til the end. Thanks, again, to Platinum Premier for their performance.

Our costume winners were:

- 1st place Zombies (DeAngeles)
- 2nd place Calypso (Corduan)
- 3rd place DOA (Chris & Jennifer)

Again, job well done everybody.

Looking ahead, November is gonna be extra busy. On the 4th, we have Dueling Pianos with Paul Therrell and Norm Hastings from 7 til 10. They perform at Seville Square and other venues. It's a must see. On the 6th, it's our Meet and Greet with a special guest appearance. Please come and meet all our new 2022 members. Wear your name badges, too. We will have stick on name tags for those who don't have one. On the 11th, we have Norm and his Piano back, then Platinum Premier on the 18th.

On the 24th, it's our Annual Thanksgiving Potluck from 1 til 5. For those who haven't attended, please come. We've had a great turn out every year. Mike, me, and Georgia will be hosting. The bar will be open from 1 til closing promptly at 5. Georgia volunteers her time, along with her Bar-back, Joe, so when she says "LAST CALL", she means it. We all do! There will be sign up sheet by the back door. The kitchen will be closed so all food should be ready to eat. We'll start our feeding frenzy at 2. There will be plenty of plugs for those with crock pots. And, we ask that everybody clean up behind themselves.

No Entertainment on the 25th, then tree decorating on the 27th, from around 2 til we finish.

Phew! that ought to do it for November, then December will be upon us.

Thanks for everybody's help.

Yo Entertainment person,
Kathy Haskins

CRAPPY CRAFTERS CORNER

What a fun craft we did on the 13th under the guidance of Lydia. She brought all the fixings to make Ginger Bread men out of little clay pots. A lot of imagination our girls have. Then, of course, we did lunch. Back to Fisherman's Corner. Again, awesome food, birthday celebrations, singing, and wine.

On the 20th, at 2 (Mahjong time), instead of games, we made Christmas Gnomes for our Kid's Christmas Party. More fun had by our amazing group. On the 23rd, we were back at the Club to decorate for our Halloween Party. Awesome job.

On November 10th, we've decided to make Button (or Shell) Christmas trees. We'll get the details out closer to the date. Save all your buttons and any shells you may possess.

Only one Birthday girl. Lynne Darius on the 15th. Enjoy and party on.
Happy Crafting y'all,

Kathy Haskins

UPCOMING EVENTS

THANKSGIVING POTLUCK
THURSDAY, November 24
1-5 pm

Hosted by Mike & Kathy Haskins and Georgia

Details to follow!

A former FEMA director noticed that the severity of the damages from major weather events such as tornadoes and hurricanes was directly correlated to the risk management index from what well-known business? Thirty brainiacs made up the four teams thinking and drinking as they came up with the answers to this and nineteen other questions in October's Trivia Night.

The basic format for the questions is nine are simple answers, nine are multiple choice, and question 10 and 20 have multiple point values. This gives every team a chance to win right up to the final question, and that's what happened in October. After question 10, only two points separated the four teams. But in the end, the West Siders and the Ringers tied for third, only one point behind the 'Nattis. At the half, the 'Nattis were two up on the BABS, but the BABS took first place because of how well they did on the final question. BABS went from worst to first!

The next Trivia Night will be Thursday, November 17. Cost is $10 per team, no limit on team size. Bring your own team or join one of the others. The fun starts when you get here, but the questions start at 6:30. Come early for dinner or one of Chef Tara's special appetizers.

Twenty-six came out for October's Bunco Night.

Halloween characters Casper and Dracula rounded out the numbers. Most Losses was "earned" by Laura Willgren and First Bunco by Mike Haskins. Mike tied with

D. L. Murphy, Patty Sweitzer, Helena Joyner, Trudy Staak, Larry Staak, and Steve Joyner for Half and Half titles. Steve was another double winner because he also tied with Donna Nunn and Kathy McCaffrey for Most Buncos. Donna picked up the Last Bunco to get into the Most Buncos group. Second Place honors went to Debbie Buckley, Shari Sparby, and Maureen Valentino. Most Wins went to Sue Reilly, Kathy Haskins, and Kathy McCaffrey. Lots of double winners that evening!

November's Bunco is set for Thursday, November 3rd. The cost is only $10 per player for all the fun and Bunco action. Bring your friends and play this fast, fun, very easy to learn game. For our newer members, it's a great way to meet and interact with your soon-to-be friends. Registration starts at 6:00, the action at 6:30. Come earlier to enjoy Chef Tara's menu or appetizer specials and liquid libations from the bar.
