Commodore's Corner

A huge thanks to Debbie Buckley, Lydia DeAngelis and Marti Miller for their efforts to clean up the by laws. We will vote on the changes at the upcoming All Hand Meeting this Summer.

Stan Kocel continues to work diligently on improvements around GLYC. He recently installed two new fryers in the Galley. Thanks Stan!

The 2023 edition of the Murder Mystery is a wrap! What a huge success. Cheri Honeycutt continues to improve on this GLYC. Awesome Job!! Cheri and all the participants.

Enjoy Your Club!

The Vice's Voice

Spring is here, and things at the club are as vibrant as ever. Here are a few things that I would like to bring to your attention.

- The annual club cruise is being organized for early January. The cruise will leave Mobile, Alabama, on January 6th and stops at Bimini, Freeport, Princess Cay, and Nassau. Please see Red at the bar for more details.
- Friday dinner and Sunday brunch continue to be the club's busiest periods. Special event weekends may have adjusted menus and offerings to accommodate larger crowds than usual. Please let the club staff know in advance if you plan on having a large party; they will do their best to accommodate.
- Planning for the annual fishing rodeo is complete, and we are preparing for the big event on Father's Day, June 18th. Sponsorships are still being solicited, and the cut-off for inclusion in the printed rodeo program.

Enjoy your club,
Steve Payne, Vice Commodore

From the Rear Commodore

Hello All,

Well I hope that everyone is happy and healthy. Its amazing how fast the year is going by. The weather is nice and the waters are busy. The winds have been challenging this spring with some already strong storm fronts that have come through. Please keep in mind with the heavy boat traffic in the Lagoon and the winds this time of year, it is recommended that your lines be doubled on marina in water boats. I am happy to assist you with this if needed.

Speaking of boat assistance, the USCG Auxiliary will be on the property soon to give courtesy safety inspections to those who wish to take advantage of it. I am sure that Kevin Marshall will be announcing the dates of this. Unfortunately, this does not pertain to the in water boats. I along with Kevin Marshall am happy to assist with the water boats, if desired. We can also assist you in explanation of various systems.

I mentioned in last months Lagoon Lines about volunteers for storm prep at the club. If anyone would like to be on that list then please let the board know. As far as the dry slips, we are still on a waiting list of a ffew people. The wet slips remain the same as well. However, we have had a few new inquiries for the wet slips. We plan to have a small work day during the month of May and then usually one before the Hargraves Tournament. We will post an email following up on this later on.

Well that's it for me. As always thank you to the amazing staff. Also, please let me know if I can be of any assistance.

Best Regards,

Captain Scott A. Walley
Rear Commodore

From the Fleet Captain

Hey, everyone! Sailing so far this Spring has been great, and the water is quite pleasant (yes, I've been in it a couple of times – usually unplanned!) The boats are all in excellent shape, including the Hobie Getaway, which is as good as new! The only boat not ready yet is the Capri 16.5, we're still waiting on that pesky mast (it's kinda essential), but as soon as it arrives we'll have her up and sailing quickly.

Special shout out to Shaun Clements who rebuilt the Torquedo electric motor for the Capri – he spent a bunch of hours on that project and saved the Club a bunch of money and time with his efforts, so thanks!

If you want to join us sailing just show up around 3 – 3:30 PM on Wednesdays in clothing you don't mind getting wet, and some type of beach shoe for launching the boats. We'll be happy to show you everything you need to know about rigging the boats and sailing them like a pro! We'll also be having several more Adult Sail Camps on Saturdays or Sundays as we go through the summer - we'll give everyone plenty of notice when those will be coming.

The Youth Sail Camp is set for July 5, 6, and 7, 2023. It will only be 3 days this year because of how July 4th falls on a Tuesday, but we can still get some great sailing in for these kids. Sailors must be between 8 and 14 years old, have their own life jacket and beach shoes for the camp. We will get sign-up lists and more information posted starting in June. We've had some great groups of kids the last few years and our instructors are looking forward to getting them back on the water again!

That's all for now!

Sail Safe!

Kevin

ENTERTAINMENT STUFF

April had a great start with Bunco on the 6th. Good crowd, and, again, thanks to Countess for another great job. On the 14th, we had Vic and the Girls, which is always a big hit. Have several new karaoke singers that are really good. Sometimes too many kids take over the mic and dance floor but they don't last that long. We're cutting back on every Friday night entertainment due to boating and vacations, so keep an eye out on upcoming events.

The HUGE draw for April was the Murder Mystery on the 22nd and 29th (both Saturdays). HUGE!!! for the last 23 years, Cheri Honeycutt has been writing these Mysteries. She absolutely outdid herself this time. All the years I've been coming to them, 22 years or maybe 23, this was, by far, the best. What goes on in that cute little brain of hers is scary!!! For those that missed it, you really missed an amazing one!!!. So glad I went to the one on the 22nd. I'm in the one on the 29th. Gave me some new ideas. So many surprises, twists and turns, an amazing moderator. Everybody played their parts to perfection. Kathy Renfrow, of course, was amazing.(She's also got a gorgeous mama). The whole waitstaff was amazing. The food was amazing. If the 29th comes anywhere close to the one on the 22nd, it'll be spectacular.Oh, thank you, Dee Marie for doing the 50/50. Perfection. Got it down to a science, huh, Girl!!

I wanna thank Allyson Parden, again, for taking over the 50/50 on Friday nights. Excellent job, my friend.. Kim Edens handled the 50/50 on the 14th for us. Great job, Kiddo.

May, we got Bunco on the 4th, Stephanie Stout on the 5th, and T Bird and the Fat Cats on the 12th, Trivia on the 18th and a Luau on the 20th Down stairs. More details and more surprises coming soon. Soon after you read this, our 3rd Entertainment Chairperson, Patty (and Kim) Sweitzer will be back. As soon as we formed our committee, she and Kim hauled butt back to Wisconsin for their nice weather and cheese. That's ok!! Allyson and I will make up for lost time and get her busy.

BILOXI BUS MAY 16TH. $25.00 TO THE IP.

That's it for now.
Your Entertainment Crew

CRAPPY CRAFTERS CORNER

Our April gathering on the 13th was a lot of fun. Jeanne Chandler brought in a friend of hers for Line Dancing instructions. She has classes at the Senior Center on 57th Street. If interested, check with her on days and prices. A lot of fun a great exercise.

Next month we're headed to the Museum on the base, thanks to Marti. More info to follow.

Wow, no birthdays in May. August was a quiet month. Think about it!!

Happy Crafting y'all,
Kathy Haskins

What designer was commissioned in 1885 by Czar Alexander III to create bejeweled Easter eggs? See if you can find the answer hidden somewhere in this edition of the Lagoon Lines. The feature question was one of twenty posed to the thirty players making up the five teams competing in April's Trivia Night.

It was a very tight competition with only one point's difference among all the teams at the half-way point. The second half saw more of a spread, but the final scores were still separated by only four points between first and last. Team 'Nattis brought up the rear ahead of the Ringers. West Side and BABS tied for second while first-time winners, the Skippers took the gold on the strength of their answers to the last question.

The format for the evening is nine questions are multiple choice, nine are not, and two, questions ten and twenty, have multiple point values. That way, every team has a chance right up to the end. Cost is $10 per team, no limit on team size. The next Trivia Night is scheduled for Thursday, May 18. The fun starts when you arrive, and the questions start at 6:30. Come early to eat and put on your drinking and thinking caps.

Twenty-two rollers came out for April's Bunco Night. The Easter Bunny and Peter Cottontail rounded out the field. Most Losses was awarded to Allyson Strickland, who ironically, tied for Most Buncos! First and Last Buncos went to Debbie Brown and Jeanette Prince respectively. Debbie was also in a tie for Most Buncos. Half and Half winners were Trudy Staak, Roz Blankenship, and Fran Opus. Clarence Brown was all alone in Second Place, while Liz Fowler and Traci Sclease tied with Debbie and Allyson for Most Buncos. Traci went on to card the Most Wins.

The next Bunco Night is scheduled for Thursday, May 4. Bring your friends for an evening of fast, fun, easy to learn Bunco. How easy is it? So easy a drunk monkey could do it! Registration starts at 6:00 and the action at 6:30. The cost is only $10 per player. come out early for drinks and something good to eat off Chef Tara's menu.

Tai Chi

Studies show that tai chi helps develop balance, mobility, and confidence. Further, people who participate in tai chi can cut the risk of being injured in a fall by half. GLYC offers tai chi sessions twice weekly, Tuesday and Thursday mornings. Sessions start at 8:30 and run about 30 minutes.

Newcomers are always welcome. No special equipment is required, just remember to wear comfortable shoes and dress for the weather. There is no charge for the sessions, but the results are priceless.
