FROM THE COMMODORE

Hello to all. Hope you are enjoying our beautiful spring weather.

The club was abuzz with activity this past month. Thanks to the staff and everyone participating in making it a successful month.

I want to thank Laura Willgren for taking the Chairmanship of the House Committee and those who have agreed to help her with that. The much needed landscaping of the front flower beds and the entry way has begun.

The Bill Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo is fast approaching. We only have a month and half to be fully prepared for this event. A tournament that encompasses three days of activity requires a large number of people to complete all the necessary preparation. You can contact any board member or committee personnel if you are willing to help. Information about the tournament, purchase fishing tickets and/or fish fry tickets, or a sponsor ad can be found on the Hargreaves Rodeo website. I encourage our members to consider sponsoring one or more of our fish categories. A list of the available fish sponsorships can be found posted on the board next to the buddy bar.

Please extend a big welcome to the new members who joined us in April.

Look forward to seeing you at the club.

The Crappy Crafters will be putting together gift baskets again this year for the Bill Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo. We're looking for items to fill the baskets and there are lots of clever ideas. You can bring your items to the club in a bag or box marked Gift Baskets by June 6th. Last year we filled 22 baskets thanks to your help and we'd like to meet or exceed that goal this year. Thank you in advance for your help.

The Vice's Voice

KELLY WALTERS
VICE COMMODORE

Summer hours for the bar and galley have started! See page 10 of the Lagoon Lines for the updated hours. Looking back at April, the Murder Mystery was as always a huge success! It was so good to see all the newer members participate. Thank you, Cheri, for 24 years of who-done-its. A big thank you to the staff for your creative costumes and service.

May is going to be a busy month with a lot of private events. *Note: The club does not close to Members during private events, but food service may be interrupted for a short time while the kitchen is getting the party out. Your patience is appreciated.

Next big Club event will be the Kentucky Derby Party on May 4th. Dig out your Seersucker suits and Derby hats and join in the fun and games. If you have never, been you are missing out on a good time. Great way to meet fellow members. Mother's Day is also right around the corner. The Club will be offering a limited menu for Mother's Day brunch; as always we request reservations for parties of 8 or more.

Looking ahead to June we have the club Luau on June 8th, followed by the Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo which takes place over Father's Day weekend.

See you at the Club!

MESSAGE FROM THE REAR COMMODORE

CAPTAIN SCOTT WALLEY

Hello all, my my! What wonderful weather is upon us! Let me start off by saying a huge thank you for those of you that were able to make it to the recent work day. We had a wonderful time and got so much accomplished. Hopefully that was the last of the back breaking work for a while.

As far as the Dry Storage and the Marina, we are about the same. We were able to accommodate another member this month with a dry storage spot. However we do have five more on the waiting list. As far as the wet slips go we have four remaining slips on the east side along with the transient slip. On the west side we are full with two members on the waiting list. We do have the two transient slips on the west side. We are getting into our busy season of boating. As a reminder, please do not block the boat ramp or any boats. There is power and water in the north part of the dry storage that can be used in the north parking lot for rinsing your boat or whatever.

Well that's about it for this guy. Please don't hesitate to call on me if I can be of any assistance. And as always a huge thank you to the amazing staff.

REPORT FROM THE FLEET CAPTAIN

Tom Wagner

It was a busy month for the sailing fleet! Shaun Clements, Mark Heinold, Peter Buckley, Kevin Marshall and Tom Wagner participated in several events on Pensacola and Perdido Bay during April, participating in several local and GYA events. The Grand Lagoon YC Sailing Team dominated the Dogwood Regatta at Fairhope YC (2021-APR2024) on the eastern shore of Mobile Bay in Alabama. GLYC took home a 2nd (Pete Buckley) and 3rd (Mark Heinold) in the Laser ILCA 7 Fleet. It was WINDY (Whitecaps ++) and some WILD RIDES dead downwind in 3 foot+ waves! Debbie Buckley (see pic) crewed on the winning boat of the Mixed Fleet for the Bikini Regatta on April 6. (Go GIRLS!)

We have had solid participation during the Wednesday sailing sessions and were joined by several great sailors from the Pensacola Beach YC to practice with the Laser fleet. For those who are interested in getting their kids/grandkids involved in sailing, the GLYC will once again be sponsoring a Children Sail Camp July 1st - 3rd. Details on requirements and how to sign up will be provided in the Lagoon Lines. We do have all of our sailing instructors lined up, but welcome additional volunteers. Please contact me if you are interested in helping out.

Thanks for all the club support. Good sailing to all those participating in events in May! See you on the water!

GLYC ACTIVITIES

Crappy Crafter's Corner

Second Thursday of the Month @ 10am

In April we took the wine corks members have been saving and Laura, Julie and Deb shared ideas on clever ways to use them. Everyone had a great time creating their little treasures as they visited with each other and laughed a lot! The group went to The Original Point Restaurant for a delicious lunch. It was also game day and a lot of the members came back to play. Everyone agreed it was a great way to spend the day!!!

Our May meeting will be held at the club on May 9th at 10:00. Dee Marie Fisher has set up an essential oils demonstration conducted by Nicci Mier of Young Essential Oils. Nicci will provide all the supplies essential oils (scents), containers, etc. for a cost of $10.00 per project. Project 1 is Air Freshener Spray for rooms, linens etc. Project 2 is moisturizers. These would make great Mother's Day Gifts!!! We'll need a head count soon so she knows how many supplies she needs to bring.

A group email will be coming out soon. If you're not yet a member of Crappy Crafters and want to come let one of the members know and we'll get you signed up.

We had a bunch of birthdays in April and only one this month. Maureen Duryea on May 19th. Wish her a birthday when you see her!

I'm looking forward to seeing you all around the club!

Reduce Stress and Find Your Balance with Tai Chi Under the Club!

Tuesdays and Thursdays @ 8:30am

What better way to start your day than being outside, under the GLYC clubhouse, looking out at the glass-smooth Intercoastal Way waters, enjoying the morning breeze, and listening to the ospreys tend to their fledglings. This is the setting for Tai Chi at GLYC. The twice weekly sessions meet at 8:30 every Tuesday and Thursday morning thirty minutes of easy stretching and flexing movements especially designed for the achy joints and muscles so many of us have. The routines are easy to learn but challenging enough to keep your interest. No special equipment is needed, just dress for the weather. These member-led sessions are free, but the results in improved balance and energy are worth everything, Beginners are always welcome.

BUNCO

First Thursday of the Month @ 6:30pm

A rather light crew of 15 players came out for April's Bunco. In honor of this year's Murder Mystery, a Little Green Man rounded out the tables. This first sustained stretch of beautiful weather, plus wedding and Spring Break season, must have had lots of folks otherwise occupied. Three players matched skills (cough, cough) to come in last: Anna Hagan, Cody Howler, and Christine Guy. Meanwhile, Pat Dilley carded the First Bunco, and Anna Hagan had Last Bunco. Half and Half winners were Dean Hoffman, Katy Robinson, Lara Keefe, and Mike Guy. Second Place was split between Countess Guiles and David Jolly, and Most Wins was rolled by red Rodgers. Anna Hagan ended up a triple threat by also having the Most Buncos. It rarely happens that Biggest Loser also has Most Buncos, and this is only the second time it has happened at GLYC.

Bring your friends for an evening of fast, fun, easy to learn Bunco. How easy is it? So easy a drunk monkey could do it! Registration starts at 6:00 and the action at 6:30. The cost is only $10 per player. You are frequently changing tables at Bunco, so come early for dinner and stay for the fun.

NEXT BUNCO NIGHT THURSDAY, MAY 2

TRIVIA NIGHT

Third Thursday of the Month @ 6:30pm

What famous character actor played the role of "Jingles" in tv's Wild Bill Hickok? Your editor hides the answer somewhere in this newsletter, and she is every bit as sneaky as your previous ones were. Six teams and 39 quiz masters were tasked with answering this and 19 other questions in April's Trivia Night.

The 'Nattis brought up the rear in 6th place, BABS came in 5th, and West End (Westies are the Besties) were only one point out of the money in Fourth. The Ringers and Kathy's Khaos tied for Second, but the Skippers overcame their half-time hurdle to take First Place.

The format for GGLYC's trivia is 20 questions made up of nine multiple choice, nine you know-it-or-you-don't, and two bonus, multiple value catch-up questions. This gives every team a chance to win right up to the very end. The next Trivia night is scheduled for May 16. Cost is only $10 per team, no limit on team size. You can bring your own team of brainiacs or join one that's already there. Come early so you can get your thinking and drinking caps on. You stay at one table, so it's easy to have dinner while you play. The fun starts when you get here, but the questions start at 6:30.

NEXT TRIVIA NIGHT THURSDAY, MAY 16

GLYC Social Scene

Kathy Haskins

April sure was a busy month, thanks to the awesome weather, good entertainment on Friday nights, and of course our annual Murder Mystery written and hosted by Cheri Honeycutt. Boogie, Inc on the 5th was great, then RCR and their Karaoke on the 12th. Thanks again, y'all. No entertainment on the 19th and the 26th so everybody could rest up for the Murder Mystery. Thank you Cheri for your outstanding imagination. Never ceases to amaze us. Where you keep all that stuff in that cute little head of yours is scary. You ARE amazing.

May is gonna be pretty busy too. We've got Platinum Premier back on the 3rd, our own Rusty on the 10th, a newby, Matt Mills on the 17th, another one of our own, Stephanie on the 24th, then rounding out the month with Wingbeat.

I'm hoping to get back there real soon, too. It's been a long time. Too long!! Thanks for the prayers.

Fun Had by All at the GLYC Murder Mystery Dinners!

Cheri Honeycutt

I'd like to thank everyone who signed up for a part in the two plays. It was heartwarming to see so many new faces in the cast. I'm so very grateful for your help in making my words come to life in such fun and funny evenings. You should all get Academy Awards!!!! BRAVO

My heartfelt thanks to Kim Edens and Kathy Renfrow for turning the club into a fantastic alien world! And to all the staff for the hard work it takes to put on each play. The entire staff should be proud of the part they played in making the plays a success.

I do believe all those who attended thought the plays were OUT OF THIS WORLD!!!!
God Bless!
