Commodores Corner

Hello everyone,

I hope each of you have recovered from the busy holidays and are healthy and avoiding the flu bug. Soon spring will be here, and we can start to really enjoy our club.

You will notice a lot of activity outside and around the club..we have started the downstairs ceiling repair and upgrade. Several repairs have been completed on our kitchen ceiling and dining room lighting. You will soon see the barge and dredging process get underway. This was delayed the past few weeks due to weather/tide conditions. Thanks to the House Committee volunteers who contribute their time and talents to keep our facility updated. We apologize for any inconvenience these projects create but the end result is an enhanced, maintained and better GLYC.

Besides our regular monthly activities, there are numerous special inside activities coming up...don't miss our Super Bowl Sunday chili cook off. There is also a special Valentines Day Friday night planned featuring a "not so newlywed game" you won't want to miss. On Fat Tuesday- Feb 25th we will have a Mardi Gras festival with special music and food. For the sailors and boaters, we will be begin the monthly lecture series this week. Wednesday afternoon sailing will start after daylight saving time change ..See this issue for more details on entertainment and sailing activities.

Please remember to thank all of our wait staff, chefs and bartenders for a job well done...I have really enjoyed Sunday brunch and our other weekly food specials this past month !!

Thanks to all members for your support of GLYC..each of you make it special...

Cheers...

Mark Orangio, Commodore GLYC

The Vice's Voice

January has been a busy month inside our club, both fun and work. Bunco and Trivia were enjoyed by many along with our Redneck Regatta. If you missed any activity, you missed good times. The overall winner of the Redneck Regatta was my bride, Jeanne Williams.

Mark Orangio and I attended the GYA meeting at the Gulfport Yacht Club. It was very informative and good to hear ideas from other clubs.

Over 40 of our members have been on a cruise returning January 25th so you may have noticed your favorite faces absent. They will be back!

As for work inside the club, thanks to our House Committee headed up by Bob Matson and his team of Countess Guiles, Kevin Marshall, Chris Bonner, and Ken Williams (me). They have replaced many of the kitchen's heat resistant ceiling tiles, cleaned the overhead lighting and the vents. Meg Matson, with help from Annette Orangio, Kathy Haskins, and Countess Guiles has done a beautiful job decorating for Mardi Gras season. Many thanks.

A new menu will be coming in February. Look for some new additions and some old favorites.

Our staff is doing an outstanding job. Thanks to all who provide us with great food and beverages. Please show them your gratitude.

Watch your weekly calendar for upcoming fun events.

Ken Williams,
Vice Commodore

BILL HARGREAVES FISHING RODEO

2020 = 50

Yes: This is 2020 and the 50th Anniversary of The Bill Hargreaves Fishing Rodeo. 50 consecutive years of fishing, family, and fun. With 5 months until the Rodeo (Father's Day weekend, June 18-21) it is time to get involved. Our first 2020 official committee meeting is Wednesday, February 19, 6 pm at GLYC. The 19th is also the last day for design ideas for this year's BHFR apparel and cozies. Drop off your designs any time between now and the 19th at GLYC.

Several of you have already indicated your willingness to help. Please attend this meeting or drop me an email (chair@billhargreavesfishingrodeo.com) or text (334.796.6744) confirming your participation. Please note any specific areas of interest. Thank you for your commitment to the 50th BHFR.

Come join our efforts. Tasks are varied in both specific duties and extent of time obligation. From planning and organizing, to actual event staffing, from soliciting financial support to food service, there is something you can do that will insure a successful rodeo. For newer members it is a useful way to meet your fellow GLYC members. See you on the 19th.

CRAPPY CRAFTER'S CORNER

Made it through the holidays with a lot of great memories. Let's hope 2020 brings the same, if not more.

Our first gathering on the 14th was a combo event plus a great assortment of finger food. Jeanne Chandler gave a class on quilting, while Marti knitted, Meg made a bird house and I gave a few lessons on how to make an infinity ball. That's what makes our group fun. Hopefully, in the future we'll have more of that. If there's a craft you're not interested in, come anyway and bring something else to do or share. That way we're all together then have a good lunch bunch.

February 11th we're going to be working on our t-shirts then caravan to Kyoto's for lunch. This is another fun one I'm gonna miss. Mike and I are taking a long over due trip back to the Dominican Republic for 2 weeks. Sooo excited.

Our Birthday girls for February are Judy on the 2nd and Marilyn on the 25th. Enjoy your month girls.

Don't forget our Biloxi trip on the 18th to the Golden Nugget.

Happy Crafting, y'all, Kathy

We would like to thank the GLYC members for their donations to the employee Christmas bonus. We appreciate the gift, but even more we appreciate you.

You*

Bunco, Bunco, Bunco

January's Bunco was so close to the beginning of the month, some Bunco participants may have still been nursing New Year's Eve hangovers! Seventeen persons showed up to kick 2020 off right with a Bunco evening. the field was rounded out by Father Time, Baby New Year, and Mother Leap Year. Three persons shared Most Losses : Catherine Hughes, Sharon Easley, and Corinne Knap. Last Bunco was captured by Birthday Boy Bill Mayo who also shared Half and Half honors with Shari Sparby (thanks for the cheese straws), Mike Haskins, Countess Guiles, Kay Main, and Norma Jolly. Second Place winner was Joan Ferry, and Most Bunco went to Kathy Haskins and Debbie Buckley. Suzanne DeClerk had Most Wins. Interestingly, three out of our four newbies won something. Beginners luck! Next Bunco is set for February 6, so come on out and bring your friends. Only $10 per person for an evening of fast, fun, easy-to-learn Bunco.

What name is entertainer Stefani Joanne Angelina Germanotta better known as? If you were on one of the 28 people who made up the five teams playing January's Trivia, you'd know. If you don't know, the answer is somewhere else in this newsletter. In a very tight competition, the BABS tied with the West Side Gang for first place with the Perdido Prowlers only one point behind. The Castaways, made up of the McCaffrey clan's extended family and friends, came in fourth, and last month's winners, the Cheeseheads, brought up the rear. It's always hard to be the defending winner. Due to a schedule conflict, the next evening of "drinking and thinking" will be rescheduled to February 27. Bring your brainiac friends and join us at 6:30 for another entertaining evening of Q and A. Cost is only $10 per team, no limit on team size.
